SAY THEY SAW THE VIRGIN.

A dispatch from Quebec says: A story of the apparition of the Virgin Mary to two little girls at Roberval, on the shore of Lake St. John, is exciting deep interest in this province. The girls are cousins, named Cloutier, and one is 8, the other 9 years of age. They say they saw the vision while on the way home from school in the village of Roberval to the residence of their parents, farmers residing a couple of miles away.

Their story is told about like this:
As they were walking home together they saw by the side of the road immediately before them a very tall and handsome lady dressed in a long white robe, wearing a very brilliant crown upon her head and having a gold chaplet suspended from her black girde.
Two little girls accompanied her. They were also dressed in white and had brilliant wings. One of the children recognized in these girls her two little sisters and the other her cousins, who died about a year ago. The girls of the vision spoke to the cousins and told them that they were their guardian angels.

The cousins asked them who was the beautiful lady accompanying them and were told that she was the mother of Jesus. Then the Virgin herself spoke to the schoolgirls and told them to go at 7 o'clock that night to a large, nine step near the home of one of them.

The apparition disappeared from them gradually, and as the Virgin moved away the two cousins pointed after her to the other school children who were with them, exclaiming:

"How beautiful she is! Don't you see her? There she is! Oh, how beautiful she is! She is the Blessed Virgin!" The other children could see nothing, and not understanding what the cousins meant they became frightened and ran away. The cousins ran the rest of the way home in a state of joyous excitement, and told their parents what they had seen and heard.

Their parents would not at first believe their story, and endeavored to persuade them that they had been mistaken. The children could not be convinced, and eagerly waited the evening hour fixed by the Virgin for another meeting. Their parents watched them from the door of the house near the pine stump, but could see nothing except the little children kneeling on the ground with their eyes raised and a happy smile upon their faces.

When the children returned they were in the same transport of joy as before. They described part of the vision, but declared that they were unable to relate all that the Virgin had told them. They say that they frequently saw the apparition of the Madonna before, but that she never spoke to them on any former occasion.

The parents of the little girls tell the story with reserve and discretion.
They say that their daughters are quite ordinary children, loving study and recreation, each in its proper sphere, that they have been always full of life and health and that the alleged apparitions have effected no change in their habits and character. While some of the people of the locality are quite skeptical in regard to the visions, and believe them to have been simply imaginative, there are many believers in the whole story.

EXPOSE OF SPIRITUALISM.—A dispatch from Paris says Camille Flammar-ion has written a letter in which he frankly admits he was wrong all his life in believing the shade of Galileo revealed to him mysteries of the heavens.
He writes further that he now disbe-lieves that manifestations are received from dead people. He says: "I explain them by our power to throw a part of our spirit outside of ourselves.
This exteriorized spirit undoubtedly is capable of moving material bodies, emitting sounds and otherwise affecting matters. I see additional proof that the phenomena so far ascribed to the dead really emanates from psychic force projected by the living. In fact, the so called relations are always confined to things known, suspected or desired by somebody present. Likewise, when music is heard, it is always a strain previously stored in the brain cells of some person present at the experiment. It is clearly the floating ex-teriorized spirit of that person repeating impressions."

PRELATE'S HAT ON MARK TWAIN.— In response at the Hotel Cecil dinner in London, on July 4 to the toast "The day we celebrate," Mark Twain said in part: "Yesterday I was at a luncheon party. At the end of that party a great dignitary of the English Establishment Church went away half an hour before anybody else, and carried off my hat. He went out first and, of course, he had his choice of hats. As a rule I try to get out first myself, but I hold that his was an innocent, unconscious act, due perhaps, to heredity.
He was thinking about ecclesiastical matters, and when a man is in that condition of mind he will take anybody's hat. The result was that for the whole afternoon I was under the influence of his clerical hat and could not tell a lie.
Of course, he was under a reverse influence."

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured." Her name is Mrs.
Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Ham-nick & Co., of Shelby N. C. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Drug Store, Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
Every bottle guaranteed.

Millions Given Away.

Gun-shot wounds and powder-burns, cuts, bruises, sprains, wounds from rusty nails, insect stings and ivy poisoning—quickly healed by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Positively prevents blood poisoning. Beware of counterfeits. "De Witt's" is SAFE AND SURE. Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr.
W. M. Rush, clerk of Hotel Danmore, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy.
The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by all druggists "What might have been"—if that little cough hadn't been neglected—is the sad reflection of thousands of consumptives. One streets.
